First & Second Grades

Family Life and School Days in the 1800s

Missouri was home to many famous and influential people in history. Arrow Rock alone was home to George Caleb Bingham, Dr. John Sappington, three Missouri governors and others who made significant contributions to our state and national heritage. What makes these individuals famous? How have their contributions impacted our heritage? Learn firsthand the significance of their contributions as well as the traits and attributes that helped these people become famous. Enjoy hands-on activities that explore and explain the characteristics of the famous Missouri artist and doctor, learning about their daily lives and how their individual contributions influenced the progress of our state and nation.

Second, Third, Fourth, & Fifth Grades

Famous Missourians

Explore the natural history and native habitats of Arrow Rock and the Boonslick Region on a guided nature hike taking students to the historic Missouri River Landing Trail. Historically this route led Arrow Rock’s visitors and residents to the treasured freshwater spring and stream that still flows into the Missouri River today. Learn about current and historic plant and animal life; imagine what the river, bluff and forest-lined stream habitats looked like in the 1800s. Understand the value and use of the natural resources for Arrow Rock inhabitants and visitors. Program includes a tour of the 1830’s J. Huston Tavern and Mercantile, once a premiere establishment for lodging, meals and supplies, which also served as a backdrop for the paintings of frontier artist George Caleb Bingham.

Third, Fourth, Fifth & Sixth Grades

Natural and Cultural History of Arrow Rock

Missouri was “America’s Frontier” in the early 1800s. Discover how settlers became citizens and leaders in the towns established along Missouri’s waterways and trails. Arrow Rock was a “spot” for several of our nation’s most adventuresome and industrious individuals. Students will participate in a mock election at the 1839 Saline County Courthouse where they will gain insight into aspects of governance; will contrast the mid-1800s governing process with that preceding, and that of present-day. Residents of Arrow Rock who had significant roles in developing the economy for the town, state and country will be profiled. Experience the J. Huston Tavern and Mercantile of Joseph Huston – continuously the hub of Arrow Rock since 1834.

Third, Fourth, Fifth & Sixth Grades

Governing the Frontier

From April through June, the Arrow Rock State Historic Site Visitors’ Center will host an exhibit of artwork by contemporary Native American artist Rueben Ironhorse Kent. Rueben is a member of the Iowa Tribe of Kansas and Nebraska. Rueben’s artwork is at times abstract. It is reflective of and influenced by traditional native beliefs.

Native American Artistry of Rueben Ironhorse Kent

Visit the log schoolhouse where the schoolmarm will teach readin’, ‘ritin’, and ‘rithmetic while students practice penmanship using quill pens and slates. Proper manners and rules for living are emphasized. Hands-on activities including chores and pastimes will help students envision daily life in the 1830s home of Gunsmith John P. Sites and his wife Nannie.

Please Note: Allow 15 minutes for this activity outside of your morning program. Request this additional time when you make your reservation. You may also view a 20 min. video about Arrow Rock. With support from the following FAR Endowments: Corinne Jackson, Sue E. Stubbs/NEH.
